Dear Aquathin Dealer On-Line;

Why should we have concerns for terrorists contaminating our water supplies...when we just keep doing it to ourselves.

Warmest regards to all,

Ohio company head charged

CLEVELAND, OH — Ernest U. Fisco of Beachwood, OH, chief operating officer of AAA Pipe Cleaning Corp., was charged with violating the Clean Water Act after allegedly directing his employees to discharge polluted waste through an illegal pipe into Kingsbury Run, a tributary of the Cuyahoga River.

The case was investigated by the US Environmental Protection Agency's Criminal Investigation Division, the FBI, the Ohio Environmental Protection Agency and the Ohio Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation. The case is being prosecuted by the US Attorney's Office in Cleveland.

Samples of the wastes were analyzed and contained fecal coliform bacteria and industrial zinc and copper waste, which can make surface waters unsafe for drinking and recreational uses and create a potential hazard to the health of fish and wildlife populations.
