Subject: TOXIC RELEASE REPORT IS LESS THAN PRETTY

Dear Aquathin Dealer OnLine, Splash NewsBulletin and Allergic Reaction NewsBulletin Members;

NYTimes.EPA TOXIC Release Report.pdf

Attached herewith is an article from the New York Times providing the U.S. E.P.A. report on Toxic Release....and it is the primary reason Aquathin is and will always be in business. The last quote in the article sums up the sad state of affairs.

"The era of big government may be over, but the era of toxic pollution is back. After three years of weakened regulation and no enforcement, every polluting industry in America clearly feels free to put whatever they want into the air and water. In previous years, we saw real, substantial decreases of emmissions every year. Not anymore."

What is worse...consider what fully unregulated second and third world nations release and dump.

I LOVE MY AQUATHIN !

Warmest regards to all...as well, your comments are always welcome and very much appreciated.
